

Virtual Field Trips for Homeschooling

- Adventures in Familyhood

This site has various field trips that also offer lesson ideas, activities and book suggestions to extend the learning for each type of destination.

<https://adventuresinfamilyhood.com/20-virtual-field-trips-to-take-with-your-kids.html>

- Arizona State Virtual Field Trips

Offers field trips that are archeology and geologically based, and includes topics such as the rainforest, water, deserts, and the earth's crust.

<https://vft.asu.edu/>

- Center for Interactive Learning & Collaboration

The CILC offers free community learning programs for students of all ages every weekday at 1 p.m. ET. These virtual programs are typically 45 to 50 minutes and provide students and educators with opportunities to "visit" museums, national parks, zoos, aquariums and science centers.

<https://www.cilc.org/Interactive-Learning/Community-of-Learning.aspx>

- The Educators' Spin On It

Includes animals, history, parks, space, and seasons. Mostly United States based.

<https://theeducatorsspinonit.com/virtual-field-trips-for-kids/>

- Farm Food 360

This site offers free 360-degree video tours of Canadian farms and the foods they produce.

<https://www.farmfood360.ca/>

- Freedom Homeschooling

Zoos, aquariums, parks, farms, natural history museums, war & military museums, historical sites & monuments, art, space, factory & business, and more. United States and international based.

<https://freedomhomeschooling.com/virtual-field-trips/>

- Good Housekeeping

Many virtual tours of museums including natural history, art, and science.

<https://www.goodhousekeeping.com/life/parenting/a32403098/virtual-field-trips-for-kids/>

- Michigan Learning Channel
Tours many areas around the state of Michigan, maritime, lighthouses, automotive, virtual shipwrecks.

<https://www.michiganlearning.org/virtual-field-trips/>
- Michigan Department of Natural Resources
Many virtual field trips, online tours, and other videos.

<https://www.michigan.gov/dnr/education/public/natureathome/virtual>
- Mister Rogers' Neighborhood
Mr. Rogers' has videos from factories that remind children that people make things, not just machines.

https://misterrogers.org/articles/factory_visits/
- Montgomery Schools (elementary)
This is a pdf of links to zoos, parks, tours and live webcams as well as museums and manufacturing.

<https://www.montgomeryschoolsmd.org/siteassets/schools/elementary-schools/t-w/woodfieldes/uploadedfiles/30-virtual-field-trips-with-links.pdf>
- PBS Learning Media (for Elementary)
Offers field trips to everyday places like the post office, the hospital, and library as well as dinosaurs, the Amazon, and weather.

<https://wgvu.pbslearningmedia.org/shared/12718/4846901/>
- Rowan University
Offers a list of various field trips as well as educational games, videos, printables, and hands-on activities.

<https://education.rowan.edu/lrcsouth/online-resource-site/virtual-field-trips.html>
- We Are Teachers
Tours include zoos, aquariums, parks, museums, planetariums, & much more.

<https://www.weareteachers.com/best-virtual-field-trips/>